

ACT NO. 15 OF 2015

I assent.

E. NAILATIKAU
President

[31 August 2015]

AN ACT

TO DECLARE THE COAT OF ARMS OF THE REPUBLIC OF FIJI AND TO MAKE PROVISION FOR ITS USE

ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of Fiji—

PART 1—PRELIMINARYShort title and commencement*

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Coat of Arms Act 2015.

(2) This Act shall come into force on a date appointed by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Coat of Arms” or “Fijian Coat of Arms” means the Coat of Arms declared in accordance with section 4;

“Disciplined Forces” means the Republic of Fiji Military Forces, Fiji Police Force, and the Fiji Corrections Service;

“former Coat of Arms” means the Coat of Arms granted by Royal Warrant under the Coat of Arms of Fiji (Restriction of Use) Act (Cap. 245);

“Minister” means the Prime Minister; and

“person” means a natural or legal person, including a company or association or body of persons whether corporate or unincorporated.

Objective

3. The objective of this Act is to—

- (a) provide for changes to be made to certain parts of the former Coat of Arms;
- (b) provide for the declaration of a new Fijian Coat of Arms; and
- (c) regulate the use of the Coat of Arms.

PART 2—THE FIJIAN COAT OF ARMS

Declaration of the Fijian Coat of Arms

4.—(1) The Minister shall by notice in the Gazette declare the Fijian Coat of Arms.

(2) Once a declaration has been made by the Minister under subsection (1) then no further declarations can be made under the same subsection.

(3) The Coat of Arms declared in accordance with subsection (1) shall be the symbol of the State, the Government and the citizens of Fiji.

Prohibition on the use of the Coat of Arms

5.—(1) A person shall not use the Coat of Arms for any purpose whatsoever without obtaining the written approval of the Minister.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

Misuse of the Coat of Arms

6.—(1) Any person who uses the Coat of Arms or associates the use of the Coat of Arms with any action, speech, writing or any other means, to demean, disrespect and insult the State or the Government commits an offence.

(2) Any person who uses the former Coat of Arms for any purpose under subsection (1) commits an offence.

(3) Any person who uses any design which in any way resembles the Coat of Arms in any manner likely to deceive commits an offence.

Commercial use

7.—(1) The Coat of Arms or any part of the Coat of Arms, shall not be used—

- (a) in any trademark or logo;
- (b) for any advertising purpose;
- (c) in any form whatsoever that involves depiction, engraving or embossing on merchandise; or

(d) for any commercial purpose,
except with the prior written approval of the Minister.

(2) Any person who—

(a) produces, sells or displays the Coat of Arms; or

(b) uses the Coat of Arms for any purpose set out under subsection (1), without the prior written approval of the Minister, commits an offence.

Use of the Coat of Arms

8.—(1) It shall be an offence to use the Coat of Arms or any part of the Coat of Arms as part of a uniform, a costume, attire or any other wear for that matter, unless authorised by the Minister in writing.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a patch of the Coat of Arms or a badge depicting the Coat of Arms may be affixed or printed onto the uniforms of Disciplined Forces.

Desecrating, altering or dishonouring the Coat of Arms

9. Any person who—

(a) for the purposes of dishonouring the Coat of Arms, modifies the Coat of Arms by placement of any emblem, letters, slogans, words or representation on it; or

(c) in or within view of any public place, uses, displays, destroys, burns, mutilates, tears or damages any image bearing the Coat of Arms in any manner with the intention of dishonouring it, commits an offence.

Changes to the Coat of Arms

10.—(1) Where the Coat of Arms has been declared in accordance with section 4, that Coat of Arms may only be amended or altered in accordance with the procedures prescribed in this section and may not be amended or altered in any other way.

(2) An amendment or alteration of the Coat of Arms must be expressed as a Bill for an Act to amend this Act.

(3) A Bill under subsection (2) must be passed by Parliament in accordance with the following procedure—

(a) the Bill is read three times in Parliament;

(b) at the second and third readings, it is supported by the votes of at least three quarters of the members of Parliament;

(c) an interval of at least 30 days elapses between the second and third readings and each of those readings is preceded by full opportunity for debate; and

(d) the third reading of the Bill in Parliament does not take place until after the relevant committee of Parliament has reported on the Bill to Parliament.

(4) If a Bill is passed by Parliament in accordance with subsection (3), then the Speaker shall notify the President accordingly, who shall then refer the Bill to the Electoral Commission, for the Electoral Commission to conduct a referendum for all registered voters in Fiji to vote on the Bill.

(5) The referendum for the purposes of subsection (4) shall be conducted by the Electoral Commission in such manner as prescribed by written law.

(6) The Electoral Commission shall, immediately after the referendum, notify the President of the outcome and shall publish the outcome of the referendum in the media.

(7) If the outcome of the referendum is that three-quarters of the total number of the registered voters have voted in favour of the Bill, then the President must assent to the Bill, which shall come into force on the date of the Presidential assent or on such other date as prescribed in the Bill.

PART 3—MISCELLANEOUS

General offences and penalties

11. Any person or body corporate who acts in contravention or does not comply with any provision under this Act commits an offence and shall be liable upon conviction—
