BILL NO. 46 OF 2025*A BILL

FOR AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE CONDUCT OF A NATIONAL REFERENDUM
AND FOR RELATED MATTERS

ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of Fiji—

PART 1—PRELIMINARYShort title and commencement*

1.—(1) This Act may be cited as the National Referendum Act 2025.

(2) This Act comes into force on a date or dates appointed by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.

Interpretation

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Constitution” means the Constitution of the Republic of Fiji;

“National Register of Voters” has the same meaning in section 2 of the Electoral (Registration of Voters) Act 2012;

“referendum” means the submission of any matter to the public pursuant to section 5 and in accordance with this Act;

“Supervisor” means the Supervisor of Elections appointed under section 76 of the Constitution; and “voter” means a person who applies to vote or votes at a referendum.

Act to bind State

3. This Act binds the State.

Purpose

4. The purpose of this Act is to allow for the conduct of a national referendum.

PART 2—REFERENDUM

Circumstances in which a referendum may be held

5.—(1) Subject to this Act, a referendum may be held in any of the following circumstances—

(a) where a Bill to amend the Constitution has passed through Parliament in accordance with section 160 of the Constitution; or

(b) where Parliament passes a resolution declaring that a certain issue or matter is of sufficient national importance that it should be submitted to the voters for their view through a referendum.

(2) The President on being notified by the Speaker of Parliament must make a referral to the Electoral Commission to conduct a referendum.

Person qualified to vote

6. Any person whose name is registered in the National Register of Voters is entitled to vote at a referendum.

Single vote

7.—(1) A person is entitled to vote only once at a referendum.

(2) Any person under subsection (1) who votes more than once commits an offence under this Act.

Register of Voters to be conclusive evidence of right to vote

8. The National Register of Voters is conclusive evidence for the purpose of determining whether or not a person is entitled to vote at a referendum.

PART 3—CONDUCT OF REFERENDUM

Application of existing electoral and voting procedure

9.—(1) The Supervisor must adopt any existing electoral and voting procedure under the Electoral Act 2014 for the conduct of a referendum under this Act.

(2) The Electoral Act 2014 applies mutatis mutandis for the conduct of a referendum under this Act.

Polling venues, polling stations and symbols

10.—(1) For the purpose of conducting a referendum, the Supervisor must adopt the existing polling venues and polling station locations identified under the Electoral Act 2014.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the Supervisor must provide as many polling stations for a polling venue that are in his or her opinion sufficient for a polling venue.

(3) The Supervisor may adopt such symbols as he or she thinks fit which must be printed on the ballot paper.

Notification of polling stations and symbols

11.—(1) The Supervisor must publish a notice in the Gazette specifying the polling station to be used for the conduct of a referendum, not later than 5 days prior to polling day.

(2) The notice must also specify the questions to be submitted to the voters and the symbols to be used in connection therewith.

Polling day at referendum to be public holiday

12. The day fixed for the conduct of a referendum (“polling day”) must be a public holiday.

Presiding officers

13.—(1) The Supervisor must appoint a presiding officer to preside at each polling station.

(2) The presiding officer is responsible for the orderly conduct of the voting and counting process at a polling station.

(3) If a presiding officer is prevented from performing any of his or her duties under this Act, the Supervisor may appoint a deputy presiding officer to perform the duties of a particular presiding officer at a polling station during the temporary absence of the presiding officer.

(4) A deputy presiding officer may do any act that the presiding officer is authorised to do under this Act.

(5) A presiding officer must be provided with a copy of the part of the National Register of Voters containing the names of voters assigned to his or her polling place.

(6) The Supervisor may, if he or she thinks fit, preside at any polling station and the provisions of this Act relating to a presiding officer applies to the Supervisor.

Facilities to be provided at polling stations

14.—(1) The Supervisor must ensure that every polling station is provided with reasonable facilities for voters to mark their votes and to vote in accordance with this Act, and he or she must determine or may authorise the presiding officer to determine, in what manner the facilities are to be distributed among persons entitled to vote at a polling station.

(2) Outside each polling station, the presiding officer must fix in a conspicuous place a notice in English, iTaukei and Hindi giving directions for the guidance of voters, before the commencement of the poll.

Admittance to polling station

15.—(1) No person may be admitted to vote at any polling station except the one allotted to him or her, provided that where a person is employed as a presiding officer, deputy presiding officer, police officer, or in any other official capacity at a polling station, and it is inconvenient for him or her to vote at the polling station which has been allotted to him or her, the Supervisor may authorise the person, by a certificate, to vote at the polling station at which he or she is employed, and that polling station is for the purposes of this section, deemed to be the polling station allotted to the person.

(2) The certificate must be given under the hand of the Supervisor and state the name of the person, his or her voter number and description in the National Register of Voters, and the fact that he or she is so employed.

(3) Unless otherwise specified in the notice of poll issued under section 11(1), the poll at every polling station must open at 7.30 am and must not close until all voters in the queue at the polling station at 6 pm, and desiring to vote, have voted.

(4) The presiding officer must maintain order in the polling station, and must regulate the number of voters to be admitted at a time, and exclude any other person except the Supervisor and any person authorised in writing by the Supervisor, a police officer on duty and any other person officially employed at the polling station.

(5) If any person misconducts himself or herself in the polling station, or fails to obey the lawful orders of the presiding officer, he or she may immediately, by order of the presiding officer, be removed from the polling station by any police officer in or near the polling station or by any other person authorised in writing by the presiding officer or by the Supervisor to remove him or her, and the person removed must not, unless with the permission of the presiding officer, be allowed to re-enter the polling station.

(6) Any person removed under subsection (5) and if charged with the commission of an offence in the polling station, may be kept in custody until he or she can be brought before a Magistrate.

(7) The powers conferred by this section must not be exercised so as to prevent any person who is otherwise entitled to vote at any polling station from having an opportunity to vote at the polling station.

Poll by ballot and ballot papers

16.—(1) At a referendum, a vote must be given by ballot and the ballot of each voter must consist of a paper referred to as a “ballot paper”.

(2) A ballot paper must be in English and have a number printed on the back with an attached counterfoil with the same number printed on the face thereof.

Statement of referendum

17. The Supervisor must, after the result of the referendum has been declared by him or her, compile a statement of the referendum and cause the statement to be published in the Gazette.

PART 4—OFFENCES

Impersonation

18. Any person who at any referendum applies for a ballot paper in the name of some other person, whether that name be that of a person living or dead, or of a fictitious person or who, having voted once at any such referendum, applies at the same referendum for a ballot paper in his or her own name, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year.

NATIONAL REFERENDUM BILL 2025

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Bill and is intended only to indicate its general effect)

1.0 BACKGROUND

- 1.1 The National Referendum Bill 2025 (‘Bill’) seeks to provide a framework for the conduct of a national referendum in Fiji.

2.0 CLAUSES

- 2.1 Clause 1 of the Bill provides for the short title and commencement. If passed by Parliament, the new legislation will commence on a date or dates appointed by the Minister by notice in the Gazette.
- 2.2 Clause 2 of the Bill provides for the interpretation of key terms that appear throughout the Bill.
- 2.3 Clause 3 of the Bill provides that the new legislation binds the State.
- 2.4 Clause 4 of the Bill provides for the purpose of the new legislation.
- 2.5 Clause 5 of the Bill provides the circumstances that allow for a referendum i.e. pursuant to section 160 of the Constitution of the Republic of Fiji and where Parliament passes a resolution declaring that a certain matter requires a referendum.
- 2.6 Clause 6 of the Bill allows any person whose name is included in the National Register of Voters, to vote at a referendum.
- 2.7 Clause 7 of the Bill provides that a person is only entitled to vote once at a referendum and prohibits any subsequent vote in the same referendum.
- 2.8 Clause 8 of the Bill provides that the National Register of Voters is conclusive evidence of determining whether a person is entitled to vote at a referendum.
- 2.9 Clause 9 provides that the Supervisor of Elections (‘Supervisor’) must adopt existing electoral and voting procedures under the Electoral Act 2014.

- 2.10 Clause 10 of the Bill requires the Supervisor to adopt the existing polling venues and polling station locations identified under the Electoral Act 2014.
- 2.11 Clause 10 of the Bill also requires the Supervisor to provide sufficient polling stations and allows the Supervisor to adopt the symbols that he or she deems necessary to be printed on the ballot paper.
- 2.12 Clause 11 of the Bill requires the Supervisor to publish in the Gazette a notice specifying the polling stations to be used in the electoral divisions for the referendum.
- 2.13 Clause 12 of the Bill requires that the day fixed for the conduct of a referendum must be a public holiday.
- 2.14 Clause 13 of the Bill requires the Supervisor to appoint a presiding officer at each polling station. The presiding officer is responsible for the orderly conduct of voting at a polling station. The Supervisor may also appoint a deputy presiding officer in the event the presiding officer is unable to carry out his or her duties.
- 2.15 Clause 14 of the Bill requires the Supervisor to ensure all polling stations have facilities to enable voters to mark their votes and to vote, including notices providing direction and guidance to voters to be conspicuously placed and written in English, iTaukei and Hindi.
- 2.16 Clause 15 of the Bill provides for the admittance of a voter at a polling station. Where a person is registered to vote at a polling station, he or she must do so unless employed in an official capacity at a polling station he or she is not registered under. In this case, the Supervisor may authorise him or her to vote that the polling station that he or she is stationed at.
- 2.17 Clause 16 of the Bill provides that voting at a referendum will be conducted by ballot using ballot papers. The ballot paper must be printed in English with the relevant reference numbers printed.
- 2.18 Clause 17 of the Bill requires the Supervisor to compile a statement of the referendum and publish the statement in the Gazette, once the Supervisor has declared the results of the referendum.
- 2.19 Clause 18 of the Bill provides for the offence of impersonation and that of voting using the name of a fictitious person.
- 2.20 Clause 19 of the Bill provides for the offence of undue influence i.e. where a person by conduct intentionally causes a person to give or refrain from giving his or her vote at a referendum.
- 2.21 Clause 20 of the Bill provides for the offence of bribery.

- 2.22 Clause 21 of the Bill requires an employer to allow an employee reasonable time to vote on polling day. Clause 21 of the Bill also prohibits any employer from penalising his or her employee for being absent during this time.
- 2.23 Clause 22 of the Bill prohibits the production and distribution of badges, symbols, posters and any other form of advertisement connected to a referendum at any time, other than by the Supervisor.
- 2.24 Clause 23 of the Bill prohibits written messaging so as to persuade a person to give or dissuade a person, from giving his or her vote at a referendum.
- 2.25 Clause 24 of the Bill prohibits undue influence at or near a polling station.
- 2.26 Clause 25 of the Bill prohibits the assembly of 5 or more people calculated to cause intimidation, alarm or annoyance and deems such assembly as unlawful.
- 2.27 Clause 26 of the Bill prohibits the operation of loudspeakers or other similar instrument during a referendum.
- 2.28 Clause 27 of the Bill restricts children and any person against whom an order of supervision has been made to take part in any activity connected to a referendum.
- 2.29 Clause 28 of the Bill allows the Minister in consultations with the Electoral Commission to make regulations to give effect to the new legislation.
- 2.30 Clause 29 of the Bill clarifies that the operation of the new legislation is not affected where there are misnomers or inaccurate descriptions of any place or person contained in any register, notice or document issued under the new legislation.
- 2.31 Clause 30 of the Bill allows for the public display of any notice required to be published under the new legislation. It also prohibits the unlawful destruction, mutilation or removal of any such notice.
- 2.32 Clause 31 of the Bill allows the Supervisor to use any school or portion of a school as a polling station. It also requires the Supervisor to pay for any expenses incurred as a result of the school being used as a polling station.
- 2.33 Clause 32 of the Bill provides that the expenses incurred in implementing the new legislation and in particular in the conduct of a referendum is to be paid out from the Consolidated Fund.

3.0 MINISTERIAL RESPONSIBILITY

- 3.1 The new legislation comes under the responsibility of the Minister responsible for justice.
